Dear [redacted]

STAT

Thank you for enabling two members of FBIS/AG to participate in our program here at The National War College. On 22 October [redacted] lectured on recent political developments in China and on 19 November [redacted] discussed Chinese foreign policy decisionmaking in our elective seminar on China. Both contributions were significant and were highly valued by the students as indicated by the favorable comments made by many of them. The students were particularly impressed by their ability to answer a wide variety of questions on recent developments in domestic and foreign policy.

I am especially pleased when The National War College can obtain the services of persons such as [redacted] in our classrooms. We greatly appreciate the service to us by their timely analysis in the Trends and it is even more gratifying when we can meet personally with them to discuss the subjects in which they have such a high degree of expertise. Please convey to them my thanks and complete satisfaction with their service to us, and thank you again for helping to make their appearances possible. I hope that they will be able to return on other occasions soon.
